

The chair on the front cover was made by me when I worked for David Savage. Technically and artistically it's a very advanced piece; every part was laminated and then sculpted. This is obviously a commendation for me and is another indication of the very high standards to which we continue to work here in the studios. I also designed and made a further 6 pieces that appear under my own name in the book, chosen for their excellence of design and craftsmanship.

BESPOKE
"Source Book of Furniture Designer Makers"
August 2007 | Betty Norbury

Kaligrafia Console Table

Deco II fruit bowl

The Harlequin bowl

Sliced 'n' Diced

Black and Tan

Red 'n' Curly